Community Member Agreement

The SilverBell Coaching (SBC) community is an inclusive peer-led forum for SBC alumni, clients, coaches and invited allies. The SBC community was developed as a way to maintain a safe and confidential engagement for individuals seeking ongoing support and connection. As an incoming member, you have participated in our orientation process and have been introduced to our community code of ethics below.

1. SBC is a safe space for community members to share and discuss.
2. SBC members maintain the confidentiality of all participants and demonstrate discretion of all community members.
3. The SBC community is not a place for networking, solicitations, and/or favors.
4. Community members will not disclose any proprietary company information.
5. Every community member has the right to participate of their own free will.
6. Prejudice or discrimination will not be tolerated within the community.

By signing this agreement, you acknowledge the following:

- (a) The SBC community is peer-led and is not therapy or a replacement for a therapeutic group.
- (b) Peers provide support, nurturing, a sense of community and bonding through shared experiences which is what brings everyone together.
- (c) Any attempts to engage with members that could be perceived as exploitive can result in immediate dismissal from the SBC community. SBC does reserve the right to dismiss group members at our sole discretion.
- (d) Any disruptive, discriminatory or offensive behavior will not be tolerated and will be addressed by SBC administration or result in removal from community.
- (e) If you feel at risk or need more clinical support, you agree to notify SBC administrators, who can facilitate appropriate care through skilled treatment providers.

By signing below, you acknowledge that you have read and understood your obligations as a community member. We look forward to having you on board
